

Discussion Guide: Suzanne Stabile

The Power of Story

Reflect

- Of the four mantras that Suzanne discussed (show up, pay attention, tell the truth, disengage from results), which do you find the most challenging in your own life? Why?
- Suzanne suggests that the four mantras are not separate tasks, but rather steps that build upon one another. What points of connection do you see between each of these mantras? (e.g., How might showing up help us better pay attention? etc.)

Respond

- What dynamics from your upbringing or culture make disengaging from results so difficult?
- If you could add a fifth mantra to Suzanne's list, what would it be and how would it contribute to the process of living faithfully in our world?
- Suzanne uses the story of Jonah to demonstrate the fourth mantra. Read over the story of Jonah (don't worry—it's short!) and discuss the following:
 - When have you felt that God was unfair?
 - Who is your "Nineveh"—the type of person or community that you may struggle to believe God loves?
