Re-wilding the Church

Reflect

- Josh highlights the fact that parables are Jesus' go-to method for teaching about faith. What is it about parables that make them so compelling and effective?
- Josh suggests that instead of reading the Old Testament in light of Jesus, we should read the story of Jesus in light of the Old Testament. What do you think of this idea? Why do you think it might be important?
- How does the understanding that mustard plants are a wild-growing "nuisance" change how you read the parable of the mustard seed?

Respond

- How would you describe in your own words what Josh means by "re-wilding" the church?
- Where do you see your community leaning into a "love and abundance" mindset? Where do you see it leaning into a mindset of "fear and scarcity"?
- How might you or your community participate in a "re-wilding" of the gospel as Josh envisions?
