Embracing Uncertainty

Reflect

- Describe a situation in which you faced great uncertainty. In what ways did it make you feel anxious or vulnerable? How did you respond?
- Olu points to three "eternal truths" that we can rely on when life is uncertain: that there is more goodness than evil in the world, that love conquers all, and that things get better if only we dare to hope. Which one of these truths resonates with you the most? Which one is the most difficult for you to believe in?

Respond

- What stories in the Bible help reinforce for you the three eternal truths Olu discusses? What experiences, people, or activities in your everyday life have helped to reinforce these same truths?
- Is being hopeful about the future the same thing as being optimistic about the future? If not, what's the difference? Which one do you think is more important to embrace when facing uncertainty?
- The stress of uncertainty can leave us exhausted, discouraged, impatient, and less gracious than we would want to be. How do you practice self-care in the midst of unresolved uncertainty?
